Proposed Budget

The proposed 2023-2024 Budget was presented to the guild at the September meeting and copies were available on our website

Cindy Thiel moved that the Proposed Budget be accepted

Cathy Stanke seconded

The motion passed unanimously

Joni

- * Thanked Suzanne Sterrett for accepting the position of Historian
- * Reminded members how to sign up to bring treats for future meetings
- * Announced plans for our December Holiday party and asked for volunteers to plan the festivities: Piper Smith, Wendy Gay, Kathy Klinge and Heidi Bakula offered to be in charge. Thank you!

Quilt Show Updates

Show Chairs Marcene Coburn, Susan Appelt and Peggy Floyd reported

- * that everything seems to be on schedule
- * Registration forms will be available at the November meeting
- * Only Members who have paid dues by the November meeting will be eligible to enter quilts in the show
- * Registration is due by the February meeting
- * Prizes for raffles include a 3-night retreat for 12, Bernina sewing machine, Brother sewing machine and a Laura Star steam system

They also reminded the members of the two raffle fabric baskets...neutrals in Cream to Cardboard and Batiks, 1-yard cuts

Kathy Klinge and Heidi Bakula, Silent Auction committee chairs, asked people to donate items for the auction including themed baskets, antiques, artwork, handmade gifts but no furniture.

Break with treats provided by October volunteers

Jewel introduced our guest speaker, Thelma Moyer, who gave an informative and entertaining talk about her work and presented a trunk show of some of her award-winning pieces. She will be teaching a class the next day at A Clean Stitch sponsored by ETC.

Birthday Bundle winners were Em Dix (#1), Berniece Zimmerman, guest (#2), Nancy Terwilliger-Grube (#3 & #5), Kathy Klinge (#4 & #6), Heidi Bakula (#7), and Karen Hunt (#8).

The Polk Dot Fat Quarter Basket winner was Pat Andrews. Caroline announced Stripes for the November Fat Quarter Basket
